Environmental Art Hike for National Get Outdoors Day

Saturday, June 9
1:00 PM – 3:00 PM

Celebrate National Get Outdoors Day! During this 1-mile hike, we will find natural items to create art. Bring water, wear sturdy shoes, and dress for the weather. Meet us in the education building.

Wednesday Workout Hike

Wednesdays: June 6, 13, 20, 27
6:00 PM – Sunset 🦋🦋🦋🦋

Looking to raise your heartrate and work up a good sweat? Join us for this free, 3 – 4 mile hike over hilly terrain with a few stops along the trail.

Hikers should have sturdy footwear and water. Meet at Kings Gap Hollow Use Area.

Father's Day Archery

Sunday, June 17
1:00 PM – 3:30 PM

Spend time with Dad while learning the basics of archery technique, safety, and skill. Free program for first time and novice “archers”.

Ages 10 and up. Pre-registration required. Register online.
20 spots available.

Pollinators in the Garden: Bees, Butterflies, and Birds

Saturday, June 23
1:00 PM – 3:00 PM

Celebrate National Pollinator Week by catching the buzz on our favorite flying garden visitors. Learn why these pollinators are important, and how to attract them to your garden! Following the interpretive program, we will view the inside of a live observation beehive and take a guided walk through the Mansion Garden. Meet in the education building.
