Handbook 2015 - 2016

(revised August 26, 2015)

WHAT IS GLEANING?

Glean: (verb)

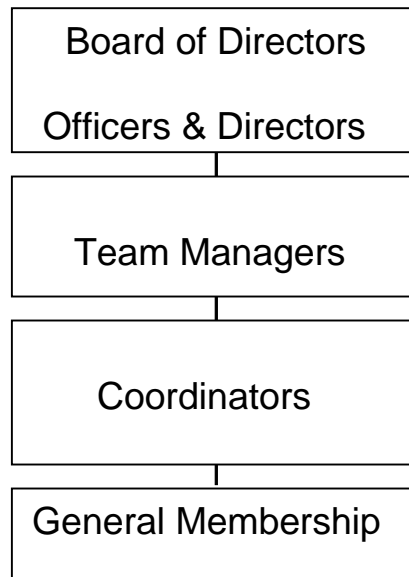

1. To harvest (grain) left behind by reapers.
2. To collect bit by bit.
3. To obtain as a result of effort.
4. To gather a return or reward.

Gleaning had its beginnings over 6,000 years ago as an honorable way of neighbor helping neighbor. It helps promote the work ethic by providing the opportunity for those interested in helping themselves.

The Co-op Rules . . .

In order to ensure that our team runs smoothly and we all benefit as much as possible from gleaning, each team member is required to . . .

1. Assume an equitable share of the workload. Expect to do 3-5 hours per week. Monthly minimum requirement: Two to three drives and one other job.
2. Follow through with their assigned responsibilities.
3. Follow established team polices & procedures as described in Team Handbook and posted at host sites.
4. Abide by established RCC guidelines.
5. If unable to meet your team obligations, contact a Team Manager to discuss possible solutions.
6. Be grateful for what you get, share with others, and do not complain.

If everyone follows these rules, we will have a fun and rewarding year of gleaning.

Operating Policies & Procedures

We are a non-profit organization (tax ID # 47-0878365) led by a board of directors and run and sustained by our members. Membership is open to all who have a willingness to work in order to help themselves and others. Our leadership team, comprised of managers and coordinators, oversees the various jobs and responsibilities delegated to team members as dictated by our team's commitments.

RCC is committed to serving our own team members first, and when excesses permit, we will strive to reach out to residents of our local communities through existing agencies and through informal contacts with our members' churches, schools, community organizations and neighbors.

Every effort is made to be sure that the distribution of gleaned items is done in a fair and equitable fashion. However, it is impossible to guarantee that each member will benefit in exactly the same way as another. Instead, it is our operating premise that you will reap what you sow. In other words, your tangible rewards will be directly related to the amount of time and energy you put into gleaning on a regular basis.

Any item received through gleaning is not to be sold anywhere. Nothing gleaned from the fields/stores may be sold or exchanged for money. However, if you have used the product in an item you are donating, such as to a bake sale, that would be acceptable. You may not give away a bakery item to be sold at a bake sale. These items are marked by the stores, and we do not want to jeopardize our relationship with the stores.

Due to the nature of our association, we do have waste/garbage items that will be in need of disposal. Proper disposal of garbage items will be the responsibility of each member. Depending on your locality, it may be unlawful to dispose of waste food in compost piles or yard waste bins. It is each member's responsibility to know the guidelines for their area.

Renton Community Co-op chooses to work 7 days a week with the exception of Thanksgiving and Christmas.

RCC utilizes a communication system that includes a monthly calendar, a phone tree, e-mail, Yahoo groups message board and team web site. It is the responsibility of each team member to check their e-mail and answering machine regularly and to pass on and return phone calls accurately and promptly in order to ensure good communication within our team. Members who wish to have their monthly calendar and participation list mailed to them must provide 12 self-addressed, stamped envelopes.

It is the responsibility of each member to keep current their driving availability information with the Calendar Coordinator, including impending vacation dates, work schedule, etc. Changes or updates to this availability must be given to the Calendar Coordinator by the 10th of the month prior to the calendar affected.

Every person 18 years of age and older who wishes to participate in a glean must have signed a waiver form and have their RCC name tag visible for the benefit of store personnel, fellow gleaners and field supervisors. If a replacement name tag is required, it may be purchased for $1.00 by contacting the Membership Coordinator.

Each member of RCC will be required to commit to a weekly minimum of 3-8 hours work. Each new member must be available to drive at least one weekday per month. If an individual is unable to do a job, it is his/her responsibility to find a substitute, to make sure that the person substituting has all the necessary information to do the job properly and to report the substitute to the calendar coordinator.

Each member will be required to attend an annual team meeting, typically held at the end of August. Members unable to attend this meeting will be asked instead to attend a board meeting or coordinator's meeting.

RCC is funded by monetary donations which enable us to carry a liability insurance policy and cover occasional supply costs. Annual donations of $30 per household (or whatever the household can afford) given by members who are financially able to do so are greatly appreciated, but not required for membership. These donations are tax deductible. When members join RCC the initial donation recommendation is based on the number of months of participation remaining to the end of the fiscal year (June 30). This value would be equal to the annual recommended donation divided by 12 multiplied by the remaining months of participation. (i.e. Joining in February, would be 5 months x $2.50 = $12.50)

Leaves of absence will be granted as needed. Members on any leave of absence do not participate in gleans.

Children are not to be in the stores with a member while he/she is on RCC business. Children under the age of 12 are not to be left unattended in the car in the store parking lot.

Resignations are to be made to a team manager 30 days in advance. This policy is necessary in order to allow ample time for scheduling drivers for our stores.

Discipline Policy

It is our goal to maintain the highest level of integrity while enabling responsibility in each of our members. In order to successfully achieve this, a disciplinary policy is necessary. All infractions, such as but not limited to failure to complete drives, pick-ups, fulfill responsibilities or breaking team rules, will be subject to a violation notice.

First violation: A meeting would be held between the member and a team manager to review the incident verbally and to assign a consequence to the action. A written report will be held on file.

Second violation within a 12 month period: Repeat step one and send a copy of the report to the board. Consequences will be assigned at the discretion of the Team Managers. (This step could be a repeat of the first infraction and/or a violation of any other policy or procedure.)

Third violation: A violation notice will be sent to the RCC board for disciplinary action. Such action may include removal from the team.

The team manager is a volunteer position with its primary function being the effective management of a gleaner team to carry out gleaning activities. A team manager is not expected to spend undue time in the mediation of a policy or procedure violation. The team manager is expected to act within the guidelines of RCC, and is empowered to carry forward good common sense solutions to each individual case. In the unlikely event that it appears an illegal action has happened, the facts and evidence of the case will be turned over to Washington State Law Enforcement.

Absentee/Vacation Checklist

- 1) Notify the driver(s) in advance, giving at least a 24-hour notice that you will not be participating in the day's glean.
- 2) Plan for your vacation in advance. Notify the calendar coordinator by the 10th of the prior month in order to avoid scheduling conflicts during your vacation. (i.e.: for time off in August, contact the calendar coordinator by July 10th)
- 3) For unexpected times away:
 - a. Check calendars.
 - b. Find replacements for ALL of your responsibilities.
 - c. Notify bread hosts/drivers, grocery drivers and calendar coordinator of changes.

Hospitality Procedures

The purpose of hospitality is to make sure that each donating store is regularly thanked and acknowledged with some sort of “thank you” gift from Renton Co-op.

RCC members will be rotated through hospitality assignments. These assignments can be found on the monthly participation list emailed to the group. Three months at a time will be listed, so there is plenty of notice. When it is your turn, you will go to the assigned store sometime during that month, preferably the beginning of the month, and take some gift of thanks. This may be a thank you card with a plate of cookies, a box of chocolates, a bouquet of flowers, or some other item you think of. For other ideas contact the hospitality coordinator. Check the listing below for specifics on how many employees at each store to acknowledge.

Sunset Marketplace	5 employees
Bartells (Highlands)	4-5 employees
Bartells (Fairwood)	4-5 employees
Bartells (Newcastle)	4-5 employees
Bartells (Issaquah)	4-5 employees
PCC	5 employees

When you take a hospitality gift to Bartells please deliver it before 3pm on weekdays and not on weekends. This way the people who actually set the items aside for us will be there when the appreciation gift is received.

Driver Communication Procedures

Sunset/PCC/Costco Drivers will notify participants listed on the participation list for their particular day, at least 24 hours in advance, as to the time and pickup location. Drivers may, if they wish, contact participants 48 hours in advance by email or text (if text preference is indicated on the roster) and may request a confirmation the information was received, as a convenience, to reduce the number of phone calls needed. Whichever participants did not reply, the driver must make a phone call to, at least 24 hours in advance. Driver must assume all participants on the participation list are participating unless they are told otherwise. Participants do not have to return a phone call to confirm their participation.

 24 hours before, call participants for next day's glean with host site and time.

1. The day before the glean coordinate with the driver for PCC (Mon, Wed, and Fri) to determine a host site and time for the combined glean. Call participants 24 hours in advance to notify them of the host location and pickup time. Arrive at the store wearing your gleaner badge – THIS IS A MUST!
2. Park in the back of the store at the loading dock.
3. Walk up the ramp next to the loading dock and ring the bell. Please be patient with the staff and wait at least a minute between rings. Many times they hear us and have to locate a staff member with a key. If you feel you have waited too long, drive around the front and let the staff know that you are there. (If you are arriving after 1:30pm please go directly to the front of the store and contact a manager to unlock the back door for you.)
4. Introduce yourself to the one that unlocks the door and proceed to the main part of the store.
5. Make your way from the back and proceed to the right through a plastic curtain. On the left hand side you will go through another plastic curtain, go up a ramp, turn right and find the produce on the floor, or on a cart, on the right. If you are unsure, ask a produce employee.
6. Load the produce goods in your vehicle. For the sake of efficiency load cart first and wheel to back door.
7. Please do not throw away any cardboard boxes in their dumpster; they may be recycled inside the loading dock.
8. Driver is to promptly report count (number of boxes gleaned) to team Grocery Counter.
9. Drivers are welcome to participate as desired.
10. Drivers sort glean equitably between the participants of the day.
11. Hosts: If a participant fails to pick up their glean by 7pm, please make a courtesy reminder call to them. If they are still not responsive, please report the incident to a team manager.

Closed Thanksgiving, Christmas, and New Year's Day.

12:30 – 1:45 p.m.

3. Ring the buzzer and someone will let you in. Introduce yourself as being from RCC. The manager will let you know which items to take. You do not go to separate departments anymore. If it is unclear which cart/s to take, always check with manager. Make as many trips to the car as needed. Be sure to thank them whether or not there is anything to take. Take everything they give you, and sort out garbage and/or spoiled produce at the after you leave..
4. Count everything except produce as individual items. Count produce by the number of banana boxes received. The item description is mainly for the team managers to get a good overview of what we are receiving. The store is mainly interested in the total numbers from each department. Packaged items that do not fit the other categories will go under Miscellaneous Grocery.
5. Sort glean, combining with Sunset glean, equitably among the day's participants. Driver may participate if desired.
6. Report grocery counts to the team Grocery Counter.

6. Hosts: If a participant fails to pick up their glean by 7pm, please make a courtesy reminder call to them. If they are still not responsive, please report the incident to a team manager.

PROCEDURES WHEN YOU CAN'T DRIVE

Southcenter Costco
400 Costco Drive (Use Sperry to enter)

206-575-9191

1. Call participants 24 hours in advance to let them know where and when the Costco glean will be available for pickup.
2. Arrive at the loading dock on Sundays, between 8:00am and 9:00am. Wear the Renton Co-op badge and sign in under the name of Renton Co-op.

Fill out the required paperwork, using Renton Co-Op's name and sign the form. Wait by the door until a bakery employee brings out the cart. Load all items into your vehicle (bringing extra boxes and garbage sacks will be helpful) and return the cart to the cart storage area

Keep an accurate count of items. For our purposes, try to divide items into general categories such as cookies, pies, cakes, etc. depending on what is available that day. This will make it easier to divide equitably among the participants for the day.

4. Drive to the host site and divide items as equitably as possible among participants.
5. Report the total number of items gleaned to the grocery counter.
6. Hosts: If a participant fails to pick up their glean by 7pm, please make a courtesy reminder call to them. If they are still not responsive, please report the incident to a team manager.

If a major holiday lands on a Sunday, there will not be any glean, including Easter Sunday.

They will then have to call the driver each time they wish to participate in that glean. After a period of six months they may request to be added back on to the printed participation list.
