

BYLAWS OF
OAKHAVEN COMMUNITY ASSOCIATION, INC.

ARTICLE I

NAME AND LOCATION

The name of the corporation is Oakhaven Community Association, Inc., hereinafter referred to as the "Association." The principal office of the Association shall be located at Board of Directors designate, but meetings of members and directors may be held at such place within the State of Texas, as may be designated by the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE II

DEFINITIONS

Section 1. "Association" shall mean and refer to Oakhaven Community Association, Inc., a Texas non-profit corporation, its successors and assigns.

Section 2. "Committee" shall mean and refer to the Architectural Committee established in accordance with Article VI of the Declaration.

Section 3. "Declarant" shall mean and refer to GWX Corporation and any of its successors or assigns which under the terms of the Declaration succeed to the rights of Declarant thereunder.

Section 4. "Declaration" shall mean and refer to the Declaration of Covenants, Conditions and Restriction for Oakhaven Community Association, Inc.

Section 5. "Lot" shall mean and refer to any portion of the Properties in the Subdivision which is deemed to be a Lot under the terms of the Declaration or any Supplemental Declaration.

Section 6. "Member" and/or "Members" shall mean and refer to all those Owners who are Members of the Association as provided in the Declaration, all Supplemental Declarations and the Articles of Incorporation of the Association. The Association shall have two classes of membership, Class A and Class B. Class A shall be all the members of the Association, with the exception of the Declarant.

The Class B member shall be the Declarant. Each class shall have such voting rights as are designated herein.

Section 7. "Owner" and "Owners in the Subdivision" shall mean and refer to those persons and entities deemed to be Owners under the terms of the Declaration and all supplemental Declarations.

Section 8. "The Subdivision" shall mean and refer to Oakhaven and all subsequent Sections expressly brought within the plan of Declaration.

Section 9. "Supplemental Declarations" shall mean and refer to all Supplemental Declarations of Covenants, Conditions and Restrictions bringing additional property within the plan of the Declaration under the authority provided in the Declaration.

Section 10. "The Properties in the Subdivision" shall mean and refer to the properties respectively described in and made subject to the Declaration and all Supplemental Declarations.

ARTICLES III

MEETING OF MEMBERS

Section 1. Place of Meetings. All meetings of members shall be held at the principal office of the Association, or at such other place within Brazos County, Texas, as may be designated by the Board of Directors or officer or member(s) calling the meeting.

Section 2. Annual Meetings. The first regular meeting of the members of the Association shall be held on the first Tuesday of September of each year beginning in 1982, at 7:00 P. M. at the principal office of the Association. If such date for the annual meeting of the members is a legal holiday, the meeting will be held at the same hour on the first day following which is not a legal holiday. The Board of Directors may postpone the time of holding the annual meeting of members for such period not exceeding ninety (90) days as they deem advisable [and any annual meeting which is so postponed or for any other reason not held on the date provided above (or one the first day following which is not a legal holiday) is herein referred to as a "delayed" annual meeting:]. Failure to hold the annual meeting at the designated time shall not work a dissolution of the Association nor impair the powers, rights and duties of the Association's officers and directors.

Section 3. Special Meetings. Special meetings of the members may be called at any time by the President or by the Board of Directors. Special meetings of members may also be called by the Secretary upon written request of the members who are entitled to vote one-fourth (1/4) of all of the votes to be cast at such meeting. Such request shall state the purpose or purposes of such meeting and the matters proposed to be acted on thereat.

Section 4. Notice of Meeting. Written notice of all special meetings and delayed annual meetings stating the place, day and hour of the meeting, and the purpose or purposes for which the meeting is called shall be delivered not less than ten (10) days nor more than fifty (50) days before the meeting to the then members of record entitled to vote at such meeting. If mailed, such notice shall be deemed to be delivered when deposited in the United States mail addressed to the member at his address as it appears in the records of the Association, with postage thereon prepaid. Notice of annual meetings (which are not delayed) shall not be required, but may be given in a like manner.

Section 5. Quorum. The presence at the meeting of members entitled to vote or represented by proxy, one-tenth (1/10) or more of the votes of each class of membership shall constitute a quorum at a meeting of members for any act except as otherwise provided in the Articles of Incorporation, the Declaration or these bylaws; but if a quorum is not present or represented, a majority in interest of the members entitled to vote thereat shall have the power then announced at the meeting, until a quorum as aforesaid shall be present or represented. At such adjourned meeting at which a quorum shall be present or represented, any business may be transacted which might have been transacted at the meeting as originally notified. The vote of the members holding a majority of the votes entitled to be cast and thus represented at a meeting at which a quorum is present shall be the act of the members' meeting unless the vote of a greater number is required by law, the Articles of Incorporation, the Declaration, or these bylaws.

Section 6. Proxies. At all meetings of members, each member who is entitled to vote may vote in person or by proxy. All proxies shall be in writing and filed with the Secretary. Every proxy shall be revocable and shall automatically cease should membership in the Association cease.

Section 7. Voting Rights. Class A members shall be entitled to one vote for each Lot in the Subdivision in which they hold the interest required for membership by the Declaration or the Supplemental Declaration which includes such Lot as a part of the Properties described therein. When more than one person holds such interest in any Lot, all such persons shall be Members, and the vote for such Lot shall be exercised as they among themselves determine, but, in no event, shall more than one vote be cast with respect to each Lot.

The Class B member shall be entitled to Three (3) votes for each Lot in the Subdivision in which it holds the ownership interest required for membership by the Declaration or the Supplemental Declaration which includes such Lot as a part of the Properties described therein; provided, that the Class B membership shall cease and become converted to Class A membership upon the first to occur of the following events:

- (a) when the total votes outstanding in the Class A membership equals the total votes outstanding in the Class B membership; or
- (b) when the Declarant shall voluntarily relinquish its Class B membership; or
- (c) on August 31, 1987.

Provided, the Class B membership may cease and be converted to Class A membership, upon the vote of two-thirds (2/3) of the members of the Board of Directors, after eighteen Lots have been sold and conveyed.

Thereafter, the Class B shall be deemed to be a Class A member entitled to one (1) vote for each Lot in the Subdivision in which it holds the ownership interest required for membership, as above provided.

The Class A and Class B members shall have no rights as such to vote as a class, except as provided in the Articles of Incorporation or the Declaration.

Section 8. Officers at Meetings. Meetings of the Members shall be presided over by the President or, if he/she is not present, by any one of the Vice Presidents. The Secretary shall act as the Secretary of the meeting, if present.

ARTICLE IV

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Section 1. Board of Directors. The business and property of the Association shall be managed and controlled by a Board of Directors consisting of not less than three (3) directors. The initial Board of Directors designated in the Articles of Incorporation shall consist of three (3) directors who need not be members of the Association. Such number shall increase as provided in Section 4 of this Article IV, and may be increased or decreased by amendment of these bylaws, provided that no decrease shall effect the shortening of the term of any incumbent Director. Unless sooner removed in accordance with these bylaws or until the Association has received a written resignation, members of the Board of Directors shall hold office until the next annual election occurring after their respective terms of office expire, and until their successors have been elected and qualified.

Section 2. Qualifications. Directors need not be Members of the Association.

Section 3. Vacancies. Any vacancies occurring in the Board of Directors, including vacancies resulting from any increase in the number of Directors, may be filled by the affirmative vote of a majority of the Directors then in office, though less than a quorum of the entire Board, and the Directors so elected shall hold office until the next annual election occurring after their respective terms of office expire and until their successors are elected and have qualified.

Section 4. Term of Office. The initial directors for the Association, as set forth in the Articles of Incorporation, shall hold office for an initial term of three (3) years and until their meeting of members of the Association occurring after their terms of office expire, the Board of Directors shall be increased in size to five (5). At such meeting five (5) directors shall be elected, each to one of the positions on the Board of Directors designated as positions One through Five, one (1) Director to serve for term of one (1) year, two (2) Directors to serve for term of two (2) years and (2) Directors to serve for a term of three (3) years. At each annual meeting thereafter, the members shall elect the number of directors whose terms expire at such time, such directors to serve for the terms designated.

Section 5. Nomination. Nomination for election to the Board of Directors shall be made by a Nominating Committee. Nominations may also be made from the floor at the annual meeting. The Nominating Committee shall consist of a Chairperson, who shall be a member of The Board of Directors, and two or more members of the Association. The Nominating Committee shall be appointed by the Board of Directors prior to each annual meeting of the members, to serve from the close of such annual meeting until the close of the next annual meeting. The Nominating Committee shall make as many nominations for election to the Board of Directors as it shall in its discretion determine, but not less than the number of vacancies that are to be filled. Such nominations may be made from among members or non members.

Section 6. Election. Election of Members of the Board of Directors may be by secret written ballot or by such other manner as may be approved at a meeting. At such election the members or their proxies may cast, in respect of each vacancy, as many votes as they are entitled to cast under the provisions of Article III, Section 7. The persons receiving the largest number of votes shall be elected. Cumulative voting shall not be permitted.

Section 7. Place of Meeting. Meetings of the Board of Directors may be held either within or without the State of Texas, at whatever place is specified by the officer or Director calling a meeting. In the absence of specific designation, the meeting shall be held at the principal office of the Association.

Section 8. Regular Meetings. The Board of Directors shall meet each year immediately following the annual meeting of the Members, at the place of such meeting, for the transaction of such business as may be properly brought before it. No notice of annual meetings need be given to either old or new members of the Board of Directors. Regular meetings may be held at such other times as shall be designated by the Board of Directors.

Section 9. Special Meetings. Special meetings of the Board of Directors may be held at any time upon the call of the President, the Secretary, or any Director. Notice shall be sent by mail or telegram to the last known address of each Director at least three (3) days before the meeting. Oral notice may be substituted for meeting. Notice of the time, place, and purpose of such meeting may be waived in writing before or after such meeting, and shall be equivalent to the giving of notice. Attendance of a Director at such meeting shall also constitute a waiver of notice thereof, except where he/she attends for the announced purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business on the grounds that the meeting is not lawfully called or convened. Except as otherwise herein provided, neither the business to be transacted at nor the purpose of any regular or special meeting of the Board of Directors need be specified in the notice or waiver of notice of such meeting.

Section 10. Quorum. A majority of the number of Directors fixed by these bylaws as from time to time amended shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, but a smaller number may adjourn from time to time until they can secure the attendance of a quorum. The act of a majority of the Directors present at any meeting at which a quorum is present shall be the act of the Board of Directors. Any regular or special Directors' meeting may be adjourned from time to time by those present, whether a quorum is present or not.

Section 11. Compensation. Directors, as such, shall not receive any stated salary for their services, but, by resolution of the Board, a fixed sum and expenses of attendance, if any, may be allowed for attendance at each regular or special meeting of the Board; provided that nothing contained herein shall be construed to preclude any Director from serving the Association in any other capacity and receiving compensation therefor.

Section 12. Removal. Any Director may be removed, either for or without cause, at any special meeting of Members by a majority affirmative vote of the Members. The notice calling such meeting shall give notice of the intention to act upon such matter, and if the notice so provides, the vacancy caused by such removal may be filled at such meeting by a majority vote of the Members. For cause, a Director may be removed at any meeting of Directors by the affirmative vote of a majority of the Directors then in office.

Section 13. Executive Committee. The Board of Directors, by resolution adopted by a majority of the number of Directors fixed by these bylaws, may designate an Executive Committee, which committee shall consist of two or more of the Directors of the Association. Such Executive Committee may exercise such authority of the Board of Directors in the business and affairs of the Association as the Board of Directors may by resolution duly delegate to except where action by the Board of Directors is specific by law. The designation of such committee and delegation thereto of authority shall not operate to relieve the Board of Directors, or any member thereof, of any responsibility imposed upon it or him by law. The designation of such committee and delegation thereto of authority shall not operate to relieve the Board of Directors, or any member thereof, of any responsibility imposed upon it or him/her bylaw. Any member of the Executive Committee shall keep regular minutes of its proceedings and report the same to the Board of Directors when required. The minutes of the proceedings of the Executive Committee shall be placed in the minute book of the Association.

Section 14. Advisory Committee. In addition to an Executive Committee the Board of Directors may for its convenience, and at its discretion, appoint one or more advisory committees of two or more Directors each, but no such advisory committees shall have any power or authority except to advise the Board of Directors, any such committee shall exist solely at the pleasure of the Board of Directors, no minutes of the proceedings of any such committee need be kept, and no member of any such committee shall receive any compensation for such membership except by way of reimbursement for reasonable expenses actually incurred by him/her by reason of such membership.

Section 15. Nominating Committee. The Board of Directors shall appoint a Nominating Committee, as provided in these bylaws.

Section 16. Powers of the Board of Directors. The Board shall have the power to:

(a) suspend the voting rights and right to the use of any facilities or services provided by the Association for a member during any period in which such member shall be in default in the payment of any assessment, including the regular annual maintenance charge, and special assessments (if any), levied by the Association. Such rights may also be suspended after notice and hearing, for a period not to exceed 60 days, for infraction of published rules and regulations;

(b) levy fines against a member for violation and infraction of published rules and regulations;

(c) take assertive action to remove any violation of these Bylaws, the Declaration or any Supplemental Declaration, or published rules and regulations of the Association;

(d) declare the office of a member of the Board of Directors to be vacant in the event such member shall be absent from three (3) consecutive regular meetings of the Board;

(e) employ a manager, an independent contractor, or such other employee as they deem necessary, and to prescribe their duties and the terms of employment or services;

(f) exercise for the Association all power, duties and authority vested in or delegated to this Association and not reserved to the membership by other provisions of these Bylaws, the Articles of Incorporation, the Declaration or any Supplemental Declaration.

Section 17. Duties of the Board of Directors. It shall be the duty of the Board to:

(a) cause to be kept a complete record of all its acts and corporate affairs and to present a statement thereof to the members at the annual meeting of the members, or at any special meeting when such statement is requested in writing by one-fourth (1/4) of the Class A members who are entitled to vote;

(b) supervise all officers, agents and employees of this Association, and to see that their duties are properly performed;

(c) fix the amount of the annual assessment against properties subject to the jurisdiction of the Association and to take such actions as it deems appropriate to collect such assessments and to enforce the liens given to secure payment thereof;

(d) issue, or to cause an appropriate officer to issue, upon demand by any person, a certificate setting forth whether or not any assessment has been paid; a reasonable charge may be made by the Board for the issuance of these certificates; if a certificate states an assessment has been paid, such certificate shall be conclusive evidence of such payment;

(e) procure and maintain such liability and hazard insurance as it may deem appropriate on any property of facilities owned by the Association; and

(f) cause any officers or employees having fiscal responsibilities to be bonded, as it may deem appropriate.

ARTICLE V

OFFICERS AND THEIR DUTIES

Section 1. Officers. The officers of the Association shall be a President, who at all times shall be a member of the Board of Directors; a Vice President or Vice Presidents; a Secretary; and a Treasurer, and such other officers as the Board may from time to time by resolution create, all of whom shall hold office for one year and until their successors are elected and qualified. Two or more offices may be held by the same person, except that no person may simultaneously hold both the office of President and the office of any Secretary, and no officer shall execute, acknowledge, or verify any instrument in more than one capacity if such instrument is required by law, the Articles of Incorporation, the Declaration or these bylaws to be executed, acknowledged or verified by two or more officers.

Section 2. Election of Officers. The election of officers shall take place at the first meeting of the Board of Directors following each meeting of the members.

Section 3. Special Appointments. The Board may elect such other officers as the affairs of the Association may require, each of whom shall hold office for such period, have such authority, and perform such duties as the Board may, from time to time, determine.

Section 4. Salaries. The salaries, if any, of the officers shall be determined by the Board of Directors and may be altered by the Board, from time to time, except as otherwise provided by contract. All officers shall be entitled to be paid or reimbursed for all costs and expenditures incurred in the Association's business.

Section 5. Vacancies. Whenever any vacancies shall occur in any office by death, resignation, increase in the number of officers or the Association, or otherwise, the same shall be filled by the Board of directors, and the officer so elected shall hold office until his successor is chosen and qualified.

Section 6. Removal. Any officer or agent elected or appointed by the Board of Directors may be removed by the Board of Directors, with or without cause, whenever in its judgment the best interests of the Association will be served thereby, but such removal shall be without prejudice to the contract rights, if any, of the person so removed. Election or appointment of an officer or agent shall not of itself create contract rights.

Section 7. President. It shall be the duty of the President to preside at all meetings of the members and all meetings of the Board of Directors of the Association; to sign all deeds, conveyances, releases, mortgages; and, to co-sign all checks and promissory notes. However, the President can appoint any other corporate officer to execute any of the aforementioned legal instruments.

Section 8. Vice President. The Vice President may perform the usual and customary duties that pertain to such office (but not unusual or extraordinary duties or powers conferred by the Board of Directors upon the President) and, under the direction and subject to the control of the Board of Directors, such other duties as may be assigned to him or her.

Section 9. Secretary. It shall be the duty of the Secretary to attend all meetings of the Members and Board of Directors and record correctly the proceedings had at such meetings in a book suitable for that purpose. It shall also be the duty of the Secretary to keep the corporate seal of the Association and affix it to all papers requiring said seal; serve notice of meetings of the Board and of the members; keep appropriate current records showing the members of the Association to Section 10. Treasurer. The treasurer shall keep such monies of the Association as may be entrusted to his/her keeping and account for the same. He/she shall co-sign all checks and promissory notes. The treasurer shall be prepared at all times to give information as to the condition of the Association and shall make a detailed annual report of the entire business and financial condition of the Association. The person holding the office of Treasurer shall also perform, under the direction and subject to the control of the Board of Directors, such other duties as may be assigned to him/her. The duties of the Treasurer may also be performed by any Assistant Treasurer.

Section 11. Delegation of Authority. In the case of any absence of any officer of the Association, or for any other reason that the Board may deem sufficient, the Board of Directors may delegate some or all of the powers or duties of such officers to any other officer or to any Director, employee, member, or agent for whatever period of time seems desirable, providing that a majority of the entire Board concurs therein.

ARTICLE IV

ASSESSMENTS

As more fully provided in the Declaration and the Supplemental Declarations, each member is obligated to pay to the Association certain annual and special assessments which are secured by a continuing lien upon the property against which the assessment is made. Any assessments which are not paid when due shall be delinquent. If the assessment is not paid within thirty (30) days after the due date, the Association may assess a late charge of Twenty-Five ($25.00) Dollars for each month the assessment remains in arrears as an expense incurred for special handling. Said late charges may be increased as the provided in the Declaration. The assessment shall bear interest from the date of delinquency at the rate of twelve percent (12%) or the highest rate available by law, per annum, and the Association may bring an action at law against the Owner personally obligated to pay the same and/or foreclose the lien against the property pursuant to Article 3810, revised Civil Statutes of Texas. Interest, costs and reasonable attorney's fees of any such action taken by the Association to collect such assessment shall be added to the amount of such assessment. No Owner may waive or otherwise escape liability for the assessments provided for herein by non use of any of the facilities or services provided by the Association or by abandonment of his property, whether owned or leased.

ARTICLE VII

INDEMNIFICATION

Section 1. Suit Against Association. Subject to the provisions of Section 3 of this Article, the Association shall indemnify any Director or officer or former Director or officer for former Director or officer of the Association for expenses and costs (including attorney's fees) actually and necessarily incurred by him/her in connection with any claim asserted against, by action in court or otherwise, by reason of his being or having been such Director or officer, except in relation to matters as to which he/she shall have been guilty of negligence or misconduct in respect of the matter in which indemnity is sought.

Section 2. Suit By or In Right of Association. Subject to the provisions of Section 3 of this Article, the Association shall indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to an threatened, pending, or completed action or suit by or in the right of the Association to procure a judgment in its favor by reason of the fact that he/she is or was a Director or officer of the Association against expenses (including attorney's fees) actually and reasonably incurred by him/her in connection with such action or suit if he/she acted in good faith and in a manner he/she reasonably he/she believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Association and except that no indemnification shall be made in respect of any claim, issue or matter as to which such person shall have been adjudged to be liable for negligence or misconduct in the performance of his duty to the Association unless and only to the extent that the appropriate court of the State of Texas or the court in which such action or suit was brought shall determine upon application that, despite the adjudication of liability but in the view of all the circumstances of the case, such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such expenses which the appropriate court of the State of Texas or such other court shall deem proper.

Section 3. Approval of Indemnification. Any indemnification under Sections 1 and 2 of the Article (unless ordered by a court) shall be made by the Association only as authorized in the specific case upon a determination that indemnification of the Director or officer is proper in the circumstances because he/she had met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in said Sections 1 and 2. Such determination shall be made (1) by the Board of Directors by a majority vote of a quorum consisting of Directors who were not parties to such action, suit or proceeding, or (2) if such quorum is not obtainable, or, even if obtainable and a quorum of disinterested Directors so directs by independent legal counsel (who may be counsel to the Association) in a written opinion, or (3) by the members.

Section 4. Indemnification Upon Success on the Merits. If a Director or officer of the Association has been successful on the merits or otherwise as a party to any action, suit, or proceeding referred to in Section 1 and 2 of this Article, or with respect to any claim, issue, or matter therein (to the extent that a portion of his expenses can be reasonably allocated thereto), he/she shall be indemnified against expenses (including attorney's fees) actually and reasonably incurred by him/her in connection therewith.

Section 5. Advance for Expenses. Expenses incurred in connection with any claim for which indemnity is provided under this Article VII, or threat thereof, may be paid by the Association in advance of the final disposition of such action, suit, or proceeding, as authorized in the manner provided in Section 3 of this Article, upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of the Director or officer to repay such amount unless it shall ultimately be determined that he/she is entitled to be indemnified by the Association as authorized in this Article.

Section 6. Other Rights. The indemnification provided by this Article VII shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which those indemnified may be entitled under any other law, agreement, vote of members or disinterested Directors, or otherwise, both as to actions in his official capacity and as to actions in another capacity while holding such office, and shall continue as a person who has ceased to be a Director or officer and shall insure to the benefit of the heirs, executors, and administrators of such a person.

Section 7. Insurance. The Association may purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any person who is or was a Director or officer, of the Association against any liability asserted against him and incurred by him in any such capacity, or arising out of his status as such, whether or not the Association would have the power to indemnify him/her against such liability under the provisions of this Article or the Texas Non-Profit Corporation Act.

ARTICLE VIII

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

Section 1. Amendments. These bylaws may be altered or repealed at any regular meeting of the members or at any special meeting of the members at which a quorum is present or represented, provided notice of the proposed alteration or repeal be contained in the notice of such special meeting, by the affirmative vote of a majority of the Board of Directors at any regular meeting of the Board or at any special meeting of the Board if notice of proposed alteration or repeal be contained in the notice of such special meeting, except that the Directors shall not alter, amend, or repeal any bylaw, or enact any bylaw in conflict with a bylaw, adopted by the members after the original adoption of these bylaws.

Section 2. Waiver. Whenever, under the provisions of any law, the Articles of Incorporation or amendments thereto, the Declaration, or these bylaws, any notice is required to be given to any member, Director, or committee member, a waiver thereof in writing signed by the person or persons entitled to such notice, whether before or after the time stated therein, shall be equivalent to the given of such notice.

Section 3. Offices. The principal office of the Association shall be designated by resolution of the Board of Directors. The Association may also have offices at such other places as the Board of Directors may, from time to time, designate or as its business may require.

Section 4. Resignations. Any Director or officer may resign at any time. Such resignations shall be made in writing and shall take effect at the time specified therein, or if no time be specified, at the time of its receipt by the Association. The acceptance of a resignation shall not be necessary to make it effective, unless expressly so provided in the resignation.

Section 5. Seal. The seal of the Association shall be circular in form with the work "Texas" in the center and the name of the Association around the margin thereof.

Section 6. Action Without a Meeting. Any action required or permitted to be taken at a meeting of the Directors may be taken without a meeting if a consent in writing, setting forth the action so taken, shall be signed by all of the Directors who are entitled to vote on the matter, and such consent shall have the same force and effect as a unanimous vote thereon. The signed consent shall be placed in the minute book.

Section 7. Telephone Meetings. Directors may participate in and hold a meeting by means of conference telephone or similar communications equipment by means of which all participants in the meeting can hear each other. Participation in such a meeting shall constitute presence in person at the meeting, except where a person participates in the meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business on the grounds that the meeting is not lawfully called or convened.

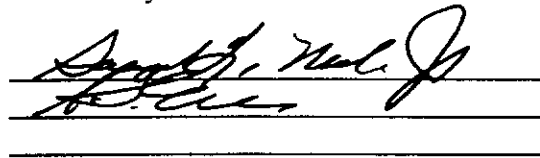

Section 8. Books and Records. The books, records and papers of the Association shall at all times during reasonable business hours be subject to inspection by any member or Director. The Declaration, Supplemental Declarations, the Articles of Incorporation and the Bylaws of the Association shall be available for inspection by any member or Director at the principal office of the Association, where copies may be purchased at reasonable cost.

Section 9. Conflict. In the case of any conflict between the Article Incorporation and these Bylaws, the Articles shall control.

Section 10. Fiscal Year. The fiscal year of the Association shall be determined and established by the Board of Directors by appropriate resolution.

EXECUTED this 27th day of March, 1993, by all of the Oakhaven Community Association, Inc.

CERTIFICATION

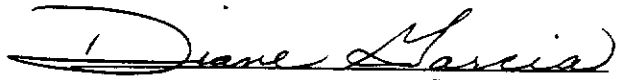

I, the undersigned do hereby certify:

That I am the duly elected and acting president of Oakhaven Community Association, Inc., a Texas nonprofit corporation; and

That the foregoing Bylaws constitute the embodiment of the original Bylaws adopted in 1982, the official copy of which has been lost since that time.

That the foregoing Bylaws constitute the Bylaws of said Association, as duly adopted at a meeting of the Board of Directors, held on the 27th day of March, 1993.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto subscribed my name this 27th day of March, 1993.

PRESIDENT
