

Job Title: Women's Intern Coach

Reports to: Head Women's Coach/Director of Rugby

Location: Yale University, New Haven, CT

Term: Feb - May, 2017

Job Type: Voluntary

Hours: Two 1.5 hr sessions per week. Opportunity for more hours if desired.

Purpose:

To work directly with the Head Women's Coach to gain valuable coaching skills and experience in managing a college rugby program. The interactive and hands-on nature of the role will allow the individual to develop technical and tactical aspects of coaching as well as other essential duties such as planning, analysis, administration and player feedback.

Qualifications:

Minimum of USA Level 200 certificate
Experience of rugby as either a player, coach or referee

Application:

For interested applicants, please send information below to craig.r.wilson@yale.edu:

- updated rugby resume
- a brief statement of what you aim to achieve from the internship role
- one reference