BEACON HILL COLONY HOME OWNERS ASSOCIATION

The Beacon Hill Colony HOA (Home Owners Association) is a not for profit corporation designed to aid the residents of the community in negotiating rent increases, settling disputes with management/owners, and forming committees within the Association to aid the residents in the daily activities of the community. The Association is also required to have the data necessary to obtain purchase of the community if, and when, it is offered by the owners. It has been standard practice of this HOA to not charge a fee to belong to the HOA.

All owners of a mobile home must be registered to vote but only one(1) can cast a vote per Fl. Statute 723.
