1					The La Paz County Probation Department saw a decrease in adult cases in 2014
2					despite the number of presentence reports filed basically remaining static.
3	2014 Adult Probation Stats				This is likely due to an increase in cases that had plea agreements stipulating
4					to prison. Restitution collected increased approximately $3000.00 in 2014
5	Revoked to DOC	17			despite the decreased numbers being supervised.
6	Successful Termination	52
7	Warrants Served	29			With the department implementing GPS as an additional tool in supervision
8	Presentence Reports Filed	105			to go along with the more aggressive approach of using deferred jail as an
9	Restitution Collected	$43,360.00			intermediate sanction, we anticipate the percentage revoked to DOC to
10	Adult Cases as of 12/31/14	250			decrease for 2015. The Probation Department also anticipates restitution
11					collections to increase as we will be requesting criminal restitution orders
12	2013 Adult Probation Stats				be issued at the time of sentencing for any case where $10,000.00 or more
13					in restitution to a victim is ordered.
14	Revoked to DOC	13
15	Warrants Served	31			The Probation Department further anticipates our overall numbers to increase
16	Restitution Collected	$ 40,608.00			in 2015 as we have offered our services to all 3 Justice Courts, focusing
